Open Day

Presented by: St Andrew's Uniting Church

A fine example of Neo-Romanesque style architecture, the building will be open on weekdays throughout the Festival. Architect George Payne supervised the construction in 1905. Visitors are invited to view this historical church with its outstanding pipe organ, beautiful stained glass windows, ecclesiastical furniture, centenary quilt and a rare collection of communion tokens. A photograph in the Peace Chapel shows Chaplain Colonel Merrington conducting a communion service with troops at Gallipoli in 1915. The communion set being used is also on display. Guides will be on duty and a guided tour brochure is available.

Museum of Brisbane

Presented by: Museum of Brisbane

The revitalised Museum of Brisbane will relaunch in an exciting, new, purpose-built gallery sitting atop of the newly restored City Hall. Set to be a must-see destination in the heart of the CBD, the new Museum also offers a unique view of two jewels of the city – the clock tower and the dome on top of City Hall. As the iconic symbol of our city's heart, it is only fitting that City Hall provides a place where residents of the city, along with visitors, can discover and explore the people, places and stories of Brisbane. Museum of Brisbane will reopen with two major exhibitions, Light Fantastic: Expo 88 Parades Re-wired, which celebrates the enduring legacy of Expo 88; and The River: A History of Brisbane, which takes the audience on a compelling journey through the history of our city.

An April Afternoon Affair
Presented by: St Paul’s Presbyterian Church

A delightful afternoon for those interested in all things crafty and artistic - silk painting, artworks, quilts, various handicrafts including quilting, card making, stamping, beading, tatting, spinning - just to name a few. Watch artisans at work, admire and/or purchase finished articles, learn from the tutors, make three craft items at the work stations and purchase crafts and gifts from the various stalls. Entry fee includes afternoon tea and three 'make and take' kits of your choice to complete with assistance from a tutor if needed. This event is part of St Paul’s Sesquicentenary celebrations for the milestone of 150 years since the congregation was formed in August 1863.

Publication Launch and Presentation
Presented by: Toowong and District Historical Society Inc.

Join us for the launch of a publication entitled Cocks’ Family Tree, a family history of a well-known and iconic Toowong family written by descendant Debbie Drummond. The Cocks family operated a grocery store in Toowong until the mid-1960s. Family matriarch Mrs Maryanne (or Annie) Cocks was the daughter of William Winterford who built the present Regatta Hotel. A presentation of a side table made from an Albizia Lebbced tree planted by Mrs Cocks in her front garden in Sherwood Road, Toowong, will be made to the BCC Toowong Library. Prior to its dying, the tree was an iconic feature of the Toowong urban landscape and was located in the heart of Toowong’s business centre. Bookings are essential.

Back to St Paul’s Day

Presented by: St Paul’s Presbyterian Church

This is an opportunity for people who have had an association with St Paul’s through weddings, baptisms, special events, or have an historical or architectural interest in this heritage-listed FDG Stanley building to come and join the congregation for worship, followed by ‘Soup and Singing’. St Paul’s celebrates each May the anniversary of the commencement of worship in the present church on St Paul’s Terrace in 1889. The inaugural congregation of August 1863 worshipped in a humble church in Creek Street prior to the move to ‘The Kirk on the Hill’, so 2013 marks the congregation’s milestone of 150 years of Christian witness.

Walk in Historical Brookfield
Presented by: Australian Garden Historical Society - Queensland

The green, semi-rural suburb of Brookfield is aptly named, with many creeks running through its wooded valleys. It was first settled about 150 years ago, when trees were felled and floated down the Moggill Creek on the way to the Brisbane River and pineapples and other tropical fruit were grown. Old farm buildings are still there, seen on the wooded hillsides. The Brookfield District Museum, created in 2004, is a gem. The building itself once was the Pullenvale Post Office, opened in 1927. The 7km walk is flat and begins at the old Cemetery. It finishes at the Bundaleer Park, with afternoon tea under shady old trees beside the wide clear creek. There is a café overlooking the water. Bookings are essential.

Afternoon at Glendalough

Presented by: The Residence, Clayfield

Join us for tea and scones on the beautiful wide verandahs of Glendalough whilst listening to a string quartet. This grand colonial from the late 1800s has been the family residence of several notable families, including the McDonnell family of ‘Mac & East’ fame. In 1988 Glendalough was restored to much of its former glory and now forms the hub of a retirement village. The afternoon will include a tour of the home and a short address by David Gibson, on the theme of how heritage homes can sometimes be best preserved by giving them a commercial basis, where due respect is given to their heritage value. Visitors may dress in period costume. Bookings are essential.

DISCLAIMER: Many of the events in this program are run by organisations other than the National Trust and are included to support their activities that promote Queensland’s heritage. It is strongly recommended that you contact the event organisers before travelling to confirm the advertised arrangements. There is the possibility that some of these events will not take place for a variety of reasons, including weather conditions, and this is beyond the control of the National Trust.

Complementing the National Trust Heritage Festivals is Australian Heritage Week this year running from Saturday 13 April to Sunday 21 April. This national annual event celebrates the places and stories that make Australia and Australians special. The week is about raising public awareness of the importance of conserving and protecting our special heritage places, our rich Indigenous heritage and the diverse historic sites that together reflect our development as a nation. It is also about encouraging communities and organisations to use this time to host a local heritage event or activity.

It is an opportunity for all Australians to join together to celebrate our shared and special heritage. You can find out more about Australian Heritage Week from the web site and may also like to register your event on the Australian Heritage Week website to provide additional promotion.

The Australian Government supports the National Trust Heritage festivals through funding and through the AHW website for the registration of events running during Australian Heritage Week.
